BASE

Behavioral Assessment to Improve School Environment

BASE Multiplier Events E1 and E2

Giuseppe Chiazzese – CNR Istituto per le Tecnologie Didattiche

E1 – BASE: Testing of the BASE application – What is it?

- The testing is an iterative process carry out during the development phase.

- The test is a virtual meeting that involve the active stakeholder's participation in the evaluation of the user interface usability of the BASE application

BASE

Behavioral Assessment to Improve School Environment

E1 – BASE: Testing of the BASE application – How to organize the testing process?

1. The ITD will coordinate the stakeholder engagement identified by each partner.

2. The of stakeholders will collaborate with the development team for organizing the small testing groups.

3. The development team of the BASE application will program a set of virtual meeting according to the development phase.

4. The ITD will invite by email the stakeholders to participate in a virtual meeting for testing the different features of application.

E1 – BASE: Testing of the BASE application – When to do the tests?

- Period: 01/11/2017 - 28/02/2019

- Periodically the development group will schedule the testing day

- The development group will contact the stakeholders two weeks before the testing day.

BASE

Behavioral Assessment to Improve School Environment

E1 - What does the stakeholder do?

- The stakeholder is invited to evaluate the features of application and the usability of user interface from different devices like mobile devices or workstations.

- The stakeholder collaborate with the development team and provide them feedbacks.

- Turn feedback as quickly as possible.

- The feedbacks will be gathered in order to make the proper improvements of adjustments for the next release.

BASE
Behavioral Assessment to Improve School Environment

E2 – A new Internet application for Positive Behavior Support system– What is it?

- The event will present the progresses of the project with a special focus on the BASE application

- Target people: to primary school teachers, school leaders, positive behavioural experts and families

- The event will introduce the stakeholders to the system features of managing behaviour as an evidence-based process. All progresses of the development process like measurement tools, chart and visual aids will be presented.

BASE

Behavioral Assessment to Improve School Environment

E2 – A new Internet application for Positive Behavior Support system– How to organize the event and when?

1. Event organizer: The ITD will organize the event in collaboration with UCD and UNIPA.

2. A web page with the details of event will be delivered on the BASE web site.

3. A registration page will be available on BASE web site to record the participants to the event.

4. A dissemination activity will be programmed for informing stakeholders

5. Period: March 2019

BASE
Behavioral Assessment to Improve School Environment